

Romanian Children Speak for Mother Earth

By Alexandra Postelnicu

At the beginning of November, I had the opportunity to spend a couple of hours with the little angels part of the CONTRAPUNCT SINGING GROUP in Bucharest. Contrapunct Singing Group is a personal initiative of Brenda Petre, an artist in Romania who dedicates her life to bring forth the talented spirit of Romanian children.

I asked the children questions like:

'Why is important to take care of Nature?'

'How do you feel when you are in Nature?'

'What message to you have for the U.N. representatives?'

'How was it to have participated in such an event?'

At the end, I was delighted to hear them playing 'HEAL THE WORLD,' adapted in Romanian and English. These little angels could convey so much love and purity in their voices that I had tears in my eyes.
